DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I, Figure 3 (appears to read on claims 1-21), drawn to a structural element disposed between core elements and fiber face skins.

Species II, Figure 9 (appears to read on claims 22 and 23), drawn to a structural element disposed between only fiber face skins.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there are no claims generic to both Species I and II.

An election of Species I would require further sub-species elections of I-A, I-B, and I-C:

Species I-A-I, appears to read on claims 2 and 7, drawn to a structural element comprising a fabric that is not pre-impregnated with resin.

Species I-A-II, appears to read on claim 3, drawn to a structural element comprising a pre-pultruded element.

Species I-A-III, appears to read on claim 4, drawn to a structural element comprising a fiber reinforced element that is pre-impregnated with resin.

Species I-B-I, appears to read on claim 8, drawn to structural elements disposed between adjacent core elements in a plane perpendicular to the direction of travel.

Art Unit: 1733

Species I-B-II, appears to read on claim 9, drawn to structural elements disposed horizontally between adjacent core elements in a plane parallel to the direction of travel.

Species I-B-III, appears to read on claim 10, drawn to structural elements disposed vertically between adjacent core elements in a plane parallel to the direction of travel.

Species I-C-I, appears to read on claim 20, drawn to stitching that extends diagonally.

Species I-C-II, appears to read on claim 21, drawn to stitching that extends perpendicularly.

Currently, claims 1, 5, 6, and 11-19 are generic to Species I.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
